5828.05

its a bit high this month, likely because we had like 10 new producers, a shit-ton of new content... bats in the belfry and gremlins eating the engine.

Hey Maxence,

Sorry for the belated reply. Our supported payment method for non-US producers is PayPal because most producers aren't aware of and/or they get confused by services like Transferwise. That said, our system allowed you to enter ACH details and they will work for you. The warning notices can be ignored.

 Hi Damian,

 I am NOT a USA citizen/resident however I have a bank account in the USA.
 I would prefer not using PayPal due to the huge currency exchange fees.

Would that be okay for me to use my US account despite not being in the US? I've used it with studio Creek Side Boys and CumClub:

Your bank details to receive USD
 Use your bank details to receive USD from friends and businesses.

How do I use these?
What are my receiving limits?

Heads up: You can't use your USD bank details to set up direct debits yet. Some merchants charge a fee for rejected debits, so please don't set any up right now.

I've entered those details on RFC. Can you let me know if it's all good or if I must use PayPal ?

Kind regards,

@John/Can, please force revenue sharing for the video indicated by Angel below.

@Angel:

RE: referral bonus. How many qualifying videos do you have available for upload? What's your rate of production? Be aware that not everyone qualifies for the bonus, nor the full amount of the bonus, but I'll glad have your account reviewed.

The RFC producer admin interface allows you to run revenue reports by payment period or date range. It does not indicate actual payments as that's done with an internal account system, however, the revenue reports should correlate with accounting.

You refer a model by telling me you have a model that you'd like to refer... then having that person submit an app :)

Hey Damian,

Thank you very much for the reply . I think I may have bothered everyone to have an answer about the ACH payment.

Thank you very much for the clarification about ACH payment. I'm glad it's the case!

I want to say I am very pleased with the revenue in just a few days for a single video. This is a really good start!

Would you be able to set this video I'm tagged in to shared revenue : <https://www.rawfuckclub.com/video/O14Cdancekja-maxence-angel-was-town-from-paris-i-had-to-grab-him>

Have you started reviewing my account for the signup bonus ?

Is there a place on RFC displaying all payouts after they have been sent ?

Lastly, how do I refer a model / studio to RFC ? I can't find a referral field in the application process,

Kind regards,
Maxence Angel

sorry for the change, i usually don't do like "updates" but since this happened prior to cynthia making rob's payment, i figured we might as well get it right.

the deduction is updated due to payment to new producer, Chase Person, whom we were previously unable to pay due to reaching a weekly limit with venmo. he provided us with paypal details. rob is aware of this.

updated amount: 4799.61
